EXAMINER'S COMMENT

1. In consideration of Protestor's arguments, the issues relating to the terminal disclaimer, diligence, correction of ownership and the properly signed oath are considered to be adequately addressed by applicant in his Response to Protest (Paper Number 6) and the submission of a new (1) Terminal Disclaimer, (2) Consent of Assignee, (3) Statement Under 37 CFR 3.73(b) and (4) Reissue Declaration.

Regarding Protestor's argument with respect to inventorship, the supplied exhibits have been reviewed and considered; however, they are not viewed, by themselves, to provide concrete evidence that the patentees are not the inventors to enable a rejection of the claims under 35 USC 102(f).

2. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Raleigh Chiu whose telephone number is (703) 308-2247. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.

Re: Reissue Application Serial No. 10/057,671
Bellehumeur et al.

Dear Sir:

Per your request to my client Mr. Carl Lekavich, I am sending you certain attachments relating to the above-identified reissue application.

We are requesting to hold up the "reissue" of Reissue Application Serial No. 10/057,671 that is indicated in the United States Patent and Trademark Office website to be ready for reissue. (See Attachment A).

The Federal Circuit just dismissed on February 11, 2003 the case of Alex Bellehumeur v. Carl Lekavich (See Attachment B) in which the United States District Court for the Central District of California, Western Division declared the original U.S. Patent 5,597,161 invalid due to lack of common ownership at the time of the signing of the Terminal Disclaimer.

We further believe the original U.S. Patent 5,597,161 is not yet commonly owned with U.S. Patent 5,275,410 when the assignment (See Attachment C) on its face clearly shows only one issued patent was assigned. The provision of the MPEP do not provide for an existing C-I-P or continuation patent application to be assumed also to be assigned in this factual scenario. The

Re: Reissue Application Serial No. 10/057,671
Bellehumeur et al.
Under Review of the Office of Patent Legal Administration

Dear Mr. Narcavage:

Thank you for letting me fax you the enclosed. I represent a client who filed a public protest against the above-identified Reissue Application

I am enclosing copies of the two final Orders from the U.S. District Court, Central District of California, Western Division which determine that the U.S. Patent 5,597,161 has been determined to be invalid as a matter of law. I am submitting these documents to you because Mr. Bellehumeur has apparently indicated that this patent was merely found "unenforceable" in his litigation status sheet and never included these final orders.

Please note the specific language in the January 30, 2002 order which the court states "The judgment granting defendants' motion for summary adjudication based on the invalidity of plaintiffs' '161 patent will not be amended. This court found that the '161 continuation patent is invalid, because the common ownership requirement with the '410 patent was not satisfied."

I believe Mr. Bellehumeur he has not been forthcoming to the United States Patent and Trademark Office and I hope that this matter is taken into consideration, along with his late filing of assignments.

I beg your indulgence in this matter, but it only recently came to my attention upon review of the full file that the United States Patent and Trademark Office might not have this vital information regarding Reissue Application No. 10/057,671.

Very truly yours,

EXAMINER'S COMMENT

1. In consideration of Protestor's arguments, the issues relating to the terminal disclaimer, diligence, correction of ownership and the properly signed oath are considered to be adequately addressed by applicant in his Response to Protest (Paper Number 6) and the submission of a new (1) Terminal Disclaimer, (2) Consent of Assignee, (3) Statement Under 37 CFR 3.73(b) and (4) Reissue Declaration.

Regarding Protestor's argument with respect to inventorship, the supplied exhibits have been reviewed and considered; however, they are not viewed, by themselves, to provide concrete evidence that the patentees are not the inventors to enable a rejection of the claims under 35 USC 102(g).

2. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Raleigh Chiu whose telephone number is (703) 308-2247. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Paul Sewell, can be reached on (703) 308-2126.

The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is (703) 305-3579.

The examiner failed to state the facts upon which he is making his ruling. Isn't this required by the MPEP?
